

JESSIE Milton's first name is the only thing about her that can possibly be described as "shortened". Measuring an awesome 180cm, the 20-year-old Adelaide model wears high heels when she's out, which can be intimidating to some blokes. But don't worry lads, nice girl Jessie says she is an angel at heart.

This issue is spilt between devils and angels. Guess which one you're in?

Angels?

Yes.

Good. I am an angel.

If you were from heaven, what do you think it would be like?

Lots of horses. I'm really into horses. I'd be able to jump on one whenever I wanted.

Would there be sex?

Um, only if my boyfriend was there.

Alright, if you only have ideal sex in heaven, what would it be like?

Jeez... I won't be able to show this to my mum now. OK, it has to be long, seductive, passionate sex. Not rushed.

Do good girls or bad girls have more fun?

I'm a good girl, and I definitely have fun.

What's the definition of a bad girl?

Good girls know how to compose themselves in public. Bad girls don't.

Have you ever woken up in the morning and regretted the night before?

I've never done anything I've regretted. I don't drink all that much, mainly because I'm working all the time. I'm so over the whole getting drunk thing.

But you're only 20.

I know, but I'm a really mature 20.

Where do you work?

Dad owns an engine reconditioning business, and I do office administration.

You're surrounded by how many guys?

Um, about eight.

Is there loads of sexual tension?

[Laughs] No, because they know I'm such a laid-back kind of girl. We all just muck around and have fun. There's no tension.

What do they think about you being in RALPH?

Oh, they think it's great. They want to put up the pictures at work.

Will that be embarrassing for you?

A little bit, but I'm looking forward to seeing myself in RALPH.

Do you work anywhere else?

I also work at a nightclub called Domain.

What do you do there?

I'm a door, um, bitch.

Bitch?

I mean doorgirl! I've just moved from Heaven. It's another nightclub.

You've come from Heaven?! I knew it! So how much modelling do you do?

A lot: catwalk, swimsuits, competitions.

Do you win?

Yeah, I won [one] on the weekend.

What other modelling do you do?

Magazines have used my body parts – often my stomach. I've got a good stomach, and a nice bellybutton.
